

Solution Focused Brief Services

For some situations, a short-term service may be the most appropriate option to address specific issues or referral questions. Consultation fees for this service starts at $100 per session with our Interdisciplinary Services team.

Please contact the Child and Youth Development Clinic team to further discuss your specific situation and needs.